

From Charles F. Honey

Bottom July 14. 1855

My Dear Garrison

I call at your house Saturday evening
for the purpose of
of saying that, as
you had not as yet
begun to realize any benefit from the
rent of your house,
I would if you prefer
it, give you now
the $120 - which will be due you on the first of July. I inferred from what your wife said that it would not be unacceptable & I enclose a check for the amount.

I was glad to learn that your experience at Worcester convinced
you that our policy
must be to attack
the free-soilers & show them no quarter, for myself I sincerely

believe that we could in no way so well
serve the cause of the slave, as to expend
all our ammunition
upon the position of the free-soilers & the church

Yours truly
Wm. L. G. Loring
